ATTENTION: LISTINGS

The Cleveland Museum of Art is assembling a new exhibition entitled:

CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN ARTISTS

opening December 18 and closing February 10, 1974.

A group of eleven American painters and sculptors will be represented by approximately 40 works of art illustrating both current Abstract and Realist trends in this country. The works on display are on loan from galleries and private collections and most were completed in the last five years.

The exhibition is being organized by Mr. Tom Hinson, from the Museum's department of Modern Art.
